We strive to offer more than a scrumptious menu and superb service in an amazing setting. We want to make you smile and make your day. We want to connect you with old friends and introduce you to new ones. We want to contribute to the energy of a small town rebuilding its Main Street.

We started by restoring and relighting The Pix marquee, a beloved local landmark that had fallen into disrepair during nearly three decades of disuse.

We aim to source locally. We buy meat from Sleepy Bison Acres, milk from Schutz Family Foods, eggs from Seifert Poultry's free-range chickens and honey from Berkner's Bees and Gardner Bees.

Welcome to Sleepy Eye. We're glad you're here.
